

ALEXANDER HAMM

Fortville, IN (317)726-6989
aphamm96@gmail.com

Dedicated and dependable individual seeking employment as CNC machinist/programmer. Possesses a strong attention to detail and the ability to follow exact instructions with accuracy. Outstanding problem-solving skills and excellent mathematical aptitude. Able to read and interpret blueprints effectively. Experienced in MasterCam and has programmed CNC machines.

EDUCATION

Ivy Tech Community College, Indianapolis, IN

May 2017

- Associate of Applied Science in Machine Tool Technology

Certifications

- OSHA 10-hour General Safety Course
- NIMS Job Planning, Benchwork, and Layout
- NIMS CNC Milling: Programming Setup and Operations
- NIMS CNC Turning: Programming Setup and Operations
- NIMS CNC Milling Operator
- NIMS CNC Turning Operator
- NIMS Turning Operations: Turning Chucking Skills
- NIMS Milling I
- NIMS Grinding Skills

WORK EXPERIENCE

Precision Racing Components

Nov 2018 – Nov 2019
-position downsized

- Performed job setups and operated CNC Lathes
- Utilized saw to cut material for machines
- Modified programs as necessary and polished parts to maintain finishes
- Maintained tolerances of .0005 in

Fastenal

March 2018 – Nov 2018

- Set-up and altered programs on Haas lathes
- Produced parts on Haas and Doosan lathes

Wolfe & Swickard Machine Co

June 2017 – March 2018

- Produced parts on vertical and horizontal mills
- Performed job set-ups and tool changes on machines
- Program training on MazaCAM

Fed Ex Distribution Center

June 2016 – June 2017

Yard Switcher

- Operate switcher truck to move filled trailers to yard parking area and quickly and safely bring empty trailers to appropriate docking space